

Committee: Special Political Committee

Sponsor: Germany

Topic: The Hong Kong-China Conflict

Recognizing that the Hong Kong-China conflict is not just an internal issue;

Observing that all nations are entitled to decide their own government system;

Aware of the proposed Fugitive Offenders and Mutual Legal Assistance in Criminal Matters Legislation (Amendment) Bill 2019 that outlined an extradition policy that violated the Sino-British Joint Declaration;

Reminding all nations of the Sino-British Joint Declaration that ensured the principle of one country two systems until 2047;

Alarmed by the violations of human rights in Hong Kong following Mainland China's proposed extradition bill;

Deeply Concerned with the arrest and detainment of visitors in Hong Kong during the protests;

Recalling that the Universal Declaration of Human Rights outlines the rights of freedom of expression and freedom to peacefully assemble, which are the primary human rights being violated;

- 1.) Condemns the violent measures taken by China to suppress the right of Hong Kong citizens to assemble;
- 2.) Authorizes the detention and arrest of Hong Kong visitors due to their relation to the protests be prohibited;
- 3.) Reminds all member nations that Hong Kong is not recognized as their own political entity by the United Nations, and is therefore, unable to voice their opinion;
- 4.) Calls upon all nations to institute an embargo on China and Hong Kong in regards to the trade of weapons;
- 5.) Emphasizes the need for harsher laws on China that promote transparency when it comes to involvement with Hong Kong's government;
- 6.) Urges an outlined procedure to resolve any future international or domestic conflict.

- 7.) Supports granting Hong Kong activist that are actively being pursued by China's government political asylum;
- 8.) Requests that all democratic member nations to support the Hong Kong Human Rights and Democracy Act;
- 9.) Further requests that all democratic nations support Hong Kong, should they choose to pursue efforts towards self-determination.